

About Project

Let us preserve the Word of the Message from Lord Abdrushin in its cleanest form for now and future times on Earth.

This site is intended for whole Earth to provide and preserve collected works of Lord Abdrushin in various languages and editions.

We have printed and electronic editions in various forms. For the printed form, the electronic one serves as a template. Therefore, emphasis is placed on the form and preservation of the electronic form of the Message.

We strive for neutral, cleanest possible form maintained by a group of coworkers, who would preserve the Lord's work for the present and the future.

This group will need to evolve and adapt to keep the work in subsequent changes of not only used software and technical means, but also in changes of the Creation.

Development

The site is in development.

There is a content filling in progress as well as software development, to be able to present the content correctly.
